Coming to Yuma . . .

YOU CAN WRITE A SONG!!

Iconic songwriters Reba Rambo and Jeff Ferguson are coming to Yuma to host an exclusive class, "You Can Write A Song". Join us on Saturday, March 9th, 2024 at 10 a.m. in the Harvest Prep Auditorium, located at 350 E. 18th Street. Seven of their previous attendees have written number one hits.

Normally, this one-day course is $149.95 but Saturday is FREE to all Yuma County residents as Harvest's way to give back to all students and adults within our community. Seats are limited, so interested individuals are encouraged to register early by calling or texting your name and number to 928-261-5783.

During the class, participants will have the opportunity to delve into the art and science of songwriting, gaining insights into the creative process, lyric writing, melody composition, and more. Through a combination of interactive sessions, group exercises, and one-on-one coaching, songwriting has never been taught so simply and powerfully. Even if you don't play an instrument, you can be a great writer.
