Thursday, February 29th, 2024

Brunswick—FBI Atlanta Special Agents have reason to believe fugitive David DeWayne Young could be hiding out in Puerto Penasco, Senora, Mexico. The city is also known as “Rocky Point”. He also has potential ties to the Phoenix area.

David D. Young remains at large after Operation Ghost Busted took place on January 11, 2023, across Southeast Georgia. Young is the final fugitive of 76 defendants named in the largest indictment in the Southern District of Georgia’s history.

Young is charged with drug trafficking conspiracy tied to the Ghost Face Gangsters criminal street gang. He goes by the nickname of “Khaos”, stands 6 feet tall, and has several distinctive tattoo’s covering portions of his face and neck. However, he may try to disguise those markings with makeup. He is known at times to go by his middle name of DeWayne.

On December 8, 2022, a federal arrest warrant was issued for Young in the United States District Court, Southern District of Georgia, after being charged with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute a controlled substance.
