Humane Society of Yuma Announces Thrift Store Grand Re-Opening Event

Come Celebrate, Find Great Bargains and Meet Some Adorable Pets

November 7, 2024 – YUMA, ARIZONA – The Humane Society of Yuma (HSOY) is thrilled to announce the Grand Re-Opening of its Thrift Store on Saturday, November 9, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This celebration marks a new chapter for the store, which supports HSOY's mission to save and care for Yuma's animals in need. Guests are invited to come out for a day filled with fun, food, and fantastic finds!

The event will feature local food vendors including The Best Taquito and Sweet Sips Lemonade, offering delicious bites and refreshing drinks. For dog lovers, Pupcakes by Donna will be serving up pet-friendly treats, while Shaggy to Chic will be on site to provide grooming advice and pet pampering services.

Exciting raffle prizes will be there, including a 50/50 cash raffle and a grand raffle of a 65-inch smart TV, giving attendees a chance to win big while supporting a great cause. Additionally, adoptable dogs from HSOY will be at the event, hoping to meet their forever families.

Inside the thrift store, shoppers will find amazing discounts on a wide selection of items. Every purchase directly supports HSOY's mission, funding programs that care for homeless, injured, and abandoned animals across Yuma County.

“After months of hard work, we are thrilled to welcome the community back to our thrift store,” said Annette Lagunas, Executive Director of the Humane Society of Yuma. “This event is more than just a celebration—it’s an opportunity for Yuma residents to help make a difference in the lives of animals in need while finding great bargains and enjoying a wonderful day out.”
