Nominations Open for Imperial Valley College Foundation Hall of Fame

Ceremony Set for May 3, 2025

IMPERIAL, Calif. – Some of Imperial Valley's most accomplished leaders, innovators, and changemakers got their start at Imperial Valley College (IVC). Now, the community has a chance to honor their achievements by nominating them for the 2025 IVC Hall of Fame—a recognition reserved for outstanding alumni who have made a lasting impact in their fields and beyond.

"This is an opportunity to celebrate those who have carried the spirit of IVC into the world and made a meaningful difference," said Todd Evangelist, executive director of the IVC Foundation. "We encourage everyone to take part in this tradition by nominating someone whose achievements deserve to be recognized."

The IVC Hall of Fame Dinner & Ceremony will take place on Saturday, May 3, 2025, at the college's Student Center (Building 600). The event highlights former IVC students who have excelled in business, healthcare, athletics, public service, and more, serving as inspirations for future generations.

Nominations are open through March 10, 2025, at 11:59 p.m. The IVC Foundation encourages community members to take part in this tradition by submitting a nomination online at www.bit.ly/IVCHOFnominate.

The IVC Hall of Fame Ceremony is more than an evening of recognition—it's a chance to connect, celebrate, and support student success. Details on ticket sales and additional event information will be announced soon.
